

John Forbes is Managing Principal of HW&Co.'s Mentor Office, and he serves on the Firm's Board of Directors. He has been specializing in the construction industry for over 35 years, having earned the designations of Certified Construction Industry Financial professional (CCIFP) and Certified Construction Auditor (CCA). He is an active member in the Institute of Certified Construction Industry Financial Professionals (ICCFP), and has in-depth experience with commercial and residential construction contractors and subcontractors and real estate.

John was the founding member in both the Cleveland and Columbus Construction Networking groups, has spoken and written articles covering various aspects of the construction industry and provided services specific to the industry, some of which include audit and tax planning, succession planning, retirement planning, maximizing bonding capacity, project forecasts/projections, financial statement analysis, and software selection and implementation.

John graduated from Bowling Green State University. After joining KPMG in July 1979, John began specializing in real estate, construction and manufacturing industries, developing an extensive background in the audit and tax issues of closely-held businesses.

John is a member of and has chaired the Ohio Society of CPAs State Construction Conference Committee and has taught several construction accounting and tax-related courses at the state and local levels. He is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Ohio Society of CPAs and several professional and civic organizations.