

Jan Reinhardt | Founder / Principal

Jan Reinhardt is a Principal and Founder at ADEPT Project Delivery. Before joining ADEPT, Jan was a Program Manager for Virtual Design and Construction for Turner Construction Company where he was instrumental in the initial BIM implementation efforts in the company. Before serving in this position he held positions as an Assistant Engineer, Engineer and Consultant at Turner. Prior to joining Turner, Jan was research assistant at Carnegie Mellon University and Consultant and Engineer at HOCHTIEF AG, where he was working on BIM and mobile computing related research and implementation projects. Jan serves as the Chairman of the Associated General Contractors of America's BIM Forum Constructor's Subcommittee. He holds a Masters Degree from Dresden University of Technology in Civil and Structural Engineering and a PhD in Computer Aided Engineering and Management from Carnegie Mellon University